CRIME OF THE MONTH

RE: Aggravated Robbery- Marathon Station

DATE: April 15, 2010

On March 27, 2010, the officers of the Grove City Division of Police were dispatched on an Aggravated Robbery to the Marathon Station at 3518 Broadway, Grove City, Ohio. The clerk advised that an unknown male entered the store and robbed her at gunpoint. The suspect brandished a dark colored semi-automatic handgun and demanded money from both registers. The male left the store running southbound on the sidewalk in front of the store.

The clerk described the suspect as a white male approximately 5'5" and weighing 170 pounds. The clerk described the suspect as being in his early to mid twenties. The clerk said the male was wearing a black ski mask which concealed his face except for holes over both eyes and his mouth. The suspect had a gray hooded sweatshirt with black jean shorts. There was no vehicle seen in the area.

Page two contains pictures of the suspect from the store surveillance video.

Please forward any information to the Grove City Division of Police at 614-277-1710.
