Form No. 1097

Held June 17 19 74

- 8. Clerk's Note: There was no one at the meeting representing Beulah Park or Entertainment Services, Inc. to speak to council or the public concerning the planned concert.
- 9. Council recess to committees.
- 10. Citizens representing the Parkridge Homeowners Association spoke to council about the subject of underground wiring and street lights for their sub-division. They had stated earlier that they were willing to pay the difference in cost from the underground wiring and the overhead wiring. Mr. Bischoff assured them that he was working on the problem of how this would be billed; working with the electric company for some type of contract and arrangement. This entails two different rates for service and a long term plan would have to be worked out with the electric company.
