COACH'S CODE OF CONDUCT

Coaches shall remain unconditionally supportive of the organization's commitment to the ideals of good sportsmanship, team play, honesty, loyalty, courage and respect for authority. Likewise, coaches shall remain sensitive to the physical and emotional well-being of the players on his/her team.

As a coach, I shall:

- Be a positive role model.
- Display and instill in my players the principals of good sportsmanship and team play.
- Conduct myself in a manner that best serves the interests of the players on my team and others.
- Do my best to provide a positive experience for all players.
- Ensure that my team will win and lose in a manner that exhibits respect and good sportsmanship.
- Treat all players, parents, spectators and league officials with respect.
- Provide instruction in a manner that is constructive and supportive.
- Not ridicule or demean players on my own or other teams, officials, parents or other program participants.
- Not tolerate behavior that endangers the health or well-being of a child.
- Complete all appropriate training including concussion recognition education.
- Comply with the decisions of league officials and observe all rules, policy and procedure as established or endorsed by Grove City Parks and Recreation (GCPR).
- Teach the sport to the best of my ability.
- Be drug and alcohol free while at any GCPR athletic event.
- Not use tobacco products at any time during a GCPR activity.
- Acknowledge the need to demonstrate fundamental proficiency with respect to the game.

Grove City Parks and Recreation has a zero-tolerance policy, the violation of which could result in an indefinite suspension up to a lifetime ban from Parks and Recreation activities. This includes, but is not limited to:

- fighting
- physical contact
- aggressive behavior towards an individual
- profanity
- belittlement of players
- violation of the substitution rule.

Anyone who fails to conform their conduct to the preceding code of conduct while attending, coaching, officiating or participating in a youth sports event will be subject to disciplinary action, including but not limited to the following in any order or combination:

- If an individual is ejected from a game for any reason, that individual must leave the facility, is immediately suspended and will not be permitted at any future practices or games until the sports supervisor or a designee has reviewed the incident.
  - The individual ejected, witnesses and the official must submit an incident report explaining the situation that resulted in the ejection.
  - Based upon the information provided, the suspension may result in a minimum of a one game suspension up to permanent removal from all future league activities conducted by Grove City Parks and Recreation.
  - If an individual is ejected from two separate games, that individual will be immediately removed from the league without a refund and will not be permitted at any facility for games for the remainder of the season.
- I agree that youth sports programs play an important role in promoting the physical, social and emotional development of children. Therefore, it is essential for parents, coaches, spectators and officials involved in youth sports events to model good sportsmanship and lead by example by demonstrating fairness, respect and self-control.
  - I accept any penalties that are assessed to me relating to my behavior.
